Fabulous opportunity to live in a 3 bedroom, 2.5 bathroom condominium at Jackson Place Cohousing. This wonderful 3-level unit is bright and modern. The top floor has two bedrooms, a full bathroom, an office area and two decks. The main level includes the kitchen, the powder room, the washer/dryer, and the living room with a dining area. The lower level has a small kitchen, a full bathroom and the third bedroom (or M-I-L or office). The kitchen enjoys dutch doors leading to the courtyard and a small garden area with a shed. The condo includes one-car parking in the common garage, plus extra storage.

Jackson Place Cohousing is a unique intentional style community where you'll know your neighbors and work together to enhance the living for all. Common meals are available several nights per week, the property is self managed by the owners, there is a workshop, a pea patch, a butterfly garden, fruit trees, a large community dining room and kitchen, a tree house, a kids play room, a common library—all allowing each owner to be as involved as they wish to be.

Ideally located just moments to downtown Seattle, I-5 and I-90, making this the most urban of the Seattle Cohousing communities.

Offered at: 350,000
